

≡ History ≡

- The history of “Dugladze Wine Company” goes back to the year 1908 when was founded one of its first wineries in Vartskikhe.
- Establishing of the family owned company is connected to the name of Mr. Dmitry Dugladze, a gifted businessman, who played a big role in developing of Georgian winemaking.
- Today, new generation of Dugladze Family successfully continues his business and rule the company by using modern management principles. “Dugladze Wine Company” is one of the leader Georgian wine-making companies as a result of combining ancient Georgian wine-making traditions, novelties and loyalty to the family business.
- To achieve and maintain the high standards of quality, significant investments were made in agriculture, vineyards, winemaking and cellar capacity.

Product Range

“Dugladze Wine Company” approach is to seek out ways to maximize the highest quality in each phase of production. It is an integrated industry with whole industrial cycle, which produces: wine, sparkling wine, brandy, brandy spirits and chacha.

